I am going to chair the faculty meeting on Tuesday and would appreciate very much an opportunity to talk to you about it before then. I will be in my office Tuesday morning, + Monday early afternoon. I will be in Bates for lunch Monday.

I will meet you wherever you like.

The faculty has taken very seriously your concerns and hopes to respond to you on Tuesday. We are a large body + it takes us time to organize for that reason. A group of us worked all day Sunday to make things more efficient on Tuesday when the entire faculty meets.

Please let me know if we can talk. Thank you.
